EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Central Consolidated School District (CCSD) is located in the northwestern section of San Juan County, New Mexico and in the northeastern section of the Navajo Nation. The District is comprised of three distinct high school service areas: Newcomb, Shiprock, and Kirtland Central.

The District covers approximately 3,000 square miles of land and has approximately 1.6 million square feet of facilities. The District has shown growth in all school sites in the PARCC assessment and continues to innovate learning to meet the diverse needs of our student population.

CCSD Students have shown growth in the PARCC assessment in the past year with several schools improving in their letter grades. The District also increased a letter grade.

We are focused on innovative solutions that will help our students be successful, while motivating them to graduate and maintain high grades.

Our cultural and language programs are second to none with a solid drive to support the development of Navajo Language and Culture for our children.

ODLA TEST RESULTS – EVALUATION MEASURES

Oral Diné Language Assessment (ODLA)

The ODLA is used to assess student knowledge of the Navajo Language and Navajo Culture. The scores from this test are considered by the Navajo Board of Education and are an important indicator of student learning.

ACCESS TEST RESULTS – EVALUATION MEASURES

ACCESS Test

One of the best indicators of learning for English Learners is the ACCESS test. ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 is a secure large-scale English language proficiency assessment administered to Kindergarten through 12th grade students who have been identified as English language learners (ELLs). It is given annually in WIDA Consortium member states to monitor students' progress in acquiring academic English. Here are our results:

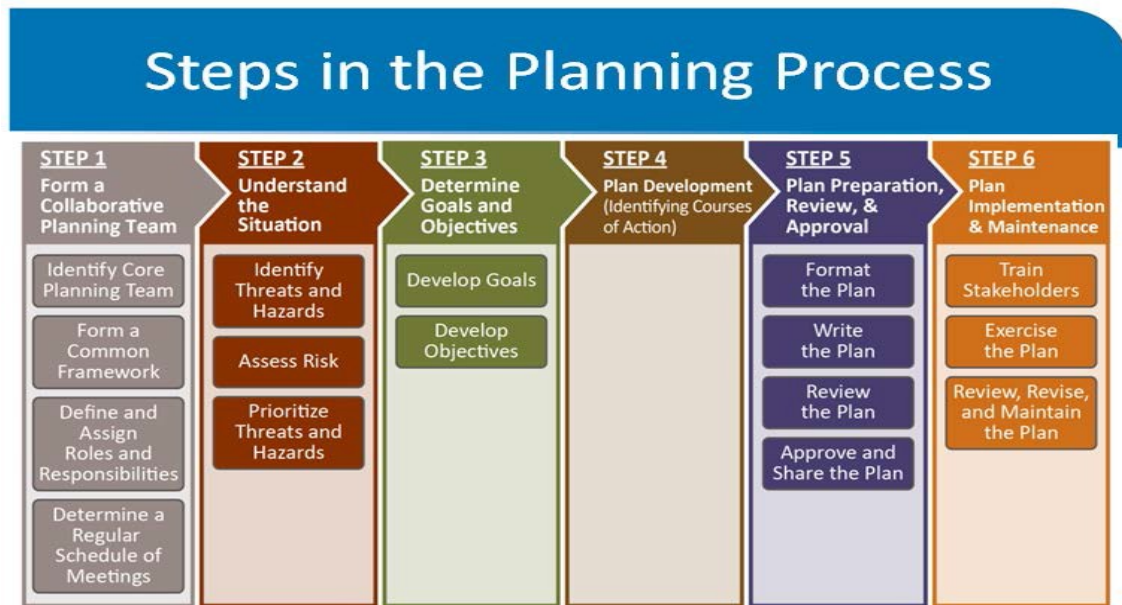

SCHOOL SAFETY & SECURITY

Planning for School Safety:

The District has embraced the FEMA model for Incident Command and Response. Our team has responded to multiple crisis situations, teaming with local resources to assure the safety of our students.

The following processes are used to support school safety planning:

The district administration established training on using the Safe School Guide and technical assistance as needed for each of the requirements and components of the plan. In addition, the following required Assurance forms were uploaded into the WebEPSS as compliance documentation:

Assurances
<input type="checkbox"/>	Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Limited English Proficiency (LEP)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Bullying Prevention
<input type="checkbox"/>	Child Abuse and Neglect
<input type="checkbox"/>	Discipline Policy (including Bus Disruptions)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Emergency Drills
<input type="checkbox"/>	Food Safety Inspections
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identification and Badging
<input type="checkbox"/>	Integrated Pest Management
<input type="checkbox"/>	Review, Revise, and Share the Plan
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tobacco, Alcohol and Drug Free Schools

A final review was completed and all 16 SSPs were submitted on February 8, 2017 for NMPED CSHWB review. In closing, Central Consolidated School District (CCSD) understands the importance of safety as a priority to the learning process for all stakeholders. CCSD organizes itself to respond with effectiveness to safety hazards and aims to strengthen our security and emergency preparedness through whole community involvement.

School Security

Central Consolidated School District is committed to the safety of our students, staff, and community. The District has worked hard to forge partnerships with the Navajo Nation Police Department as well as San Juan County Emergency Response and Law Enforcement. In addition to these partnerships, we employ:

We contract seven (7) full-time Level 1 guards from Blackstone Security to protect our high schools and their surrounding schools.

In addition to the seven contract security guards, the District has a ten member Rapid Response Team of Level 3 trained security guards who also work for the Facilities Team. This team is able to rapidly respond to an emergency and provide trained support, no matter what the situation.

Finally, the District has embraced the Incident Command Team (ICT) system from FEMA. All members of the team are trained on FEMA emergency management protocols.

DROPOUT RATES AND ATTENDANCE

One of the best indicators of student success, aside from graduation rates, is dropout rates and attendance.

The District has seen a 2.6% reduction in dropout rates since the 2010-2011 school year. Decreases at individual school sites are as great as a 6.6% reduction in dropouts (Tse Bit Ai Middle School).

Student Attendance as Measured by Habitual Truancy

Students are considered habitual truant when they miss 10 or more days per school year. CCSD has approximately 22% of students who fit this category. As attendance is important to learning, the District is taking steps to motivate students to attend school.

PARENT AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Navajo Knowledge Bowl

The Navajo Knowledge Bowl, hosted by CCSD was well attended. 14 school districts participated including: Aztec, Cuba, Central, Navajo Prep, Tseyieai, Whitehorse, Window Rock, and San Juan School District. The Knowledge Bowl consisted of five events consisting of: Navajo Reading, Navajo Writing, Navajo Speaking, Singing, and Group Singing.

Navajo Spelling Bee

Central Consolidated holds an annual Navajo Spelling Bee, testing the Navajo language spelling skills of fourth, fifth, and sixth grade students. Students are expected to not only spell the words correctly, but to also correctly insert the high-tones, glottal-stops, and nasal-tones into each word.

Bilingual Showcase

CCSD also hosts an annual Bilingual Showcase. Over 370 students participated from seven schools. The showcase included songs, skits, and dances. All culture were welcome to participate and we were pleased to have a demonstration from our Spanish and Filipino students, also.

Summer Language Camp

CCSD hosts a Summer Language Camp for our Navajo students. The camp lasts for ten days and is based on themes. This year's theme was Weaving. Students learned traditional weaving methods in an immersed language environment. 100 students participated in this unique opportunity.

Culture Nights

CCSD also hosts Navajo Language and Culture education nights for students and their families. The education nights cover seasonal themes and are held twice a week during winter and spring. This program is sponsored by and supported by Johnson O'Malley funds. – Students and families. Based on seasonal themes, done twice a week during winter and spring. Curriculum has been developed. Newcomb, Shiprock, and Kirtland. This is part of the JOM plan.

Northern Navajo Fair

We proudly showcase our students and their achievements every year at the Shiprock Northern Navajo Fair. We have students present from each of our schools with presentations ranging from traditional dances to robotics to ROTC drill teams.

Cultural Counseling for Students and Parents

CCSD employed a Cultural Specialist, Sheldon Begay, who provided cultural counseling, field trips to sacred mountains, and support for our students. Mr. Begay provides an important supplement to our western counseling services and behavior supports as he works with students and families.

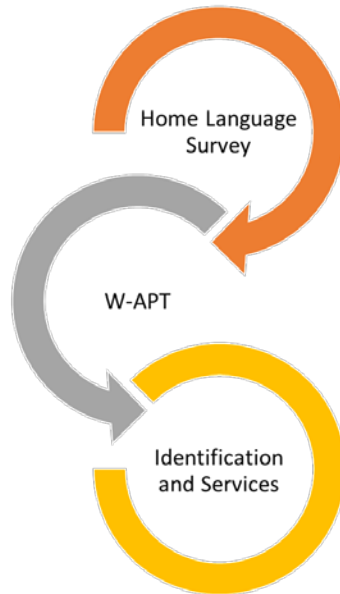

Dual Language Instructional Models for Native American Students

We offer a variety of models to meet the divergent needs of our students:

With this model, students are identified via the Home Language Survey. Students who are identified are then given the WAPT test to determine if they qualify as English Language

To determine eligibility for our language models for Native Americans, we follow this process:

Identification Process

Curriculum Mapping for Navajo Teachers

CCSD invested heavily in the efforts of its teachers to build a curriculum for dual language. The curriculum currently in place with the bilingual teachers was created by CCSD staff. The team also built a curriculum map to assist teachers.

With fluctuations in the energy sector, the state of New Mexico is having some tough times financially. Due to drops in enrollment, hiring of less experienced teachers, and decreased state revenues, we have seen a steady decline in state dollars:

DREAM DINÉ CHARTER SCHOOL

This charter school is operated out of Shiprock, New Mexico, and enrolls approximately 26 students. The state-funded program cost for the school is $482,000.00.

If the students were to be enrolled at Central Schools, the District would receive approximately $195,000.00. Nearly all of the DREAM DINÉ charter school students are former students of Central Schools.

SAN JUAN EARLY COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

San Juan Early College High School is located in Farmington, New Mexico and draws students from area school districts.

For the 2016-2017 school year, there were 10 students. 10 more students are expected to sign up for 2017-2018, bringing the total to 20 students. By sending these students to the San Juan Early College High School, the District will lose approximately $150,000.00.

While Central Schools supports school choice and educational options, the cost to the District is significant.

CURRENT STATUS OF FEDERAL INDIAN EDUCATION POLICIES & PROCEDURES

CCSD is working collaboratively with the Johnson O'Malley Indian Education Committee to approve the JOM Educational Plan, the JOM ByLaws, and Open Meetings Act. Members are represented at the following meetings:

- Navajo Nation JOM Regional Meetings
- National Nation Subcontractors Meetings
- New Mexico Government-to-Government Summit

The District participates in federal program audits, as required. We also have representation at the National Indian Education Association Conferences.

INITIATIVES TO DECREASE DROPOUTS AND INCREASE ATTENDANCE

IF YOU BUILD IT, THEY WILL COME

Technical Apprenticeship Program (TAP): Modeled after the Academies of Nashville, this innovative program will provide work-study and apprenticeship opportunities to students in the areas of electrical, plumbing, heating/cooling, carpentry, landscaping, and more. The initial cohort will consist of 16 students and will focus on at-risk students.

Dual Language: Central Consolidated School District offers a K-5 immersive program that includes direct instruction in Navajo for ½ of the school day and direct instruction in English for the rest of the day. Culture and tradition are an essential component to this program.

After-School Cultural Academy: For those students who are not able to participate in the immersive dual language program, the District offers an after-school cultural academy. In the academy, student's cultural challenges that prevent them from learning as a result of loss or self-identity are addressed with positive and interesting instruction from Navajo Elders.

Alternative Opportunities for Learning: The District offers opportunities for students who are at-risk, credit deficient, or who are struggling with social issues to receive an education. Student Intervention Teams partner with local agencies to assist students in their quest to be successful.

High School Academies: CCSD is supporting the implementation of career cluster academies in the Newcomb, Shiprock, and Kirtland areas. Academies consist of areas like Nursing, Business/Technology, Culinary Arts, Dine' Studies, Indigenous Healthcare, Performing Arts, Welding, and more!

Community Partnerships: CCSD is integrating corporate partners with education to offer wonderful high-tech learning opportunities with industry leaders.
