MEMORANDUM

TO: Superintendents and Charter School Leaders
FROM: Gwen Perea Warniment, PhD, Deputy Secretary of Teaching, Learning, and Assessment
RE: Re-envisioning New Mexico’s Educator Effectiveness System

The New Mexico Public Education Department (PED) is holding a series of statewide community conversations to solicit public input on improved ways to measure educator effectiveness and a re-envisioned Summative Report for New Mexico educators. Dates, times, and locations for these events are attached and can be found on the NMPED website.

The feedback gathered from these conversations will be included in a Statewide Educator Effectiveness System Transition Report that will be published by a statewide Educator Effectiveness Task Force. The task force will make recommendations to the department on the framework for a re-envisioned summative educator effectiveness report.

Nominees to the task force are welcomed from a range of professional interest (e.g., educators, university faculty, parents, non-profits, other state agencies, RECs, business). Nominations can be made here, and self-nominations are welcome. Nominations will be accepted until June 14, 2019 and appointments will be made by June 21, 2019.
