Important Changes to the NM Teacher Observation Tool for the 2019-20 SY

- The Rubric (formerly known as the NMTEACH Observation Tool) has been revised to reduce from 5 Performance Levels to only 4 levels.
- The Rubric Levels include: Innovating, Applying, Developing, and Not Demonstrating.
- Each teacher shall receive a minimum of one observation during this school year. Best Practice does indicate that Level 1 teachers should receive 2 observations. Districts may add additional observations as they deem necessary.
- Each teacher shall receive three walkthroughs that are focused on feedback around the elements and domains of the rubric. These required forms are embedded in the Interim Feedback & Observation Plan built into Frontline. Building/District Administrators determine focus areas for walkthroughs.
  - If your district or school has used a specific walkthrough form and you would like to continue to use your form, you are able to do so by uploading the completed form in the space provided at the bottom of the Required Walkthrough Form in Frontline. Please note that you will still need to mark a level of at least one of the rubrics and provide actionable feedback as the data from these forms is summarized on the end of year summary form. The scores from walkthroughs will NOT be used in the teacher’s summative evaluation.
- Administrators may continue to do additional walkthroughs on the form of their choice utilizing the Ad-Hoc Elements feature of Frontline. However, these do not replace the required Walkthroughs that are represented in the Interim Feedback & Observation Plan. You could complete this ad-hoc walkthrough and then save as a pdf file to attach to the required walk-through form. Just remember that you still need to mark a rubric level and provide actionable feedback on the required form as well.
- The Interim Feedback & Observation Plan outlined below shows details of the plan and forms that are required to be completed in the Frontline Education Employee Evaluation Management solution.
- You will notice an additional requirement of including actionable feedback as well as timely feedback to teachers. This is to ensure that we are promoting teacher growth and development throughout the feedback processes. It is recommended to give two or three concrete suggestions. An example of actionable feedback might be, “I noticed that only 6 students contributed to the classroom discussion. Have you considered trying one of the following strategies: Think, Pair, Share; Shoulder Partners; or Table Talk?”
