New Teacher Evaluation System

As you know, we are transitioning to a new teacher evaluation system. During this transition year we will recognize observer certification from the 2018 – 19 evaluation cycle. If your administrators were certified last school year (18 -19), they will not have to certify again this school year (19-20). We are offering a second New Administrator Training in January for new administrators who did not attend training this September and are required to conduct observations. The training will include supports for new administrators and calibration to the observation rubric. Please use the link below to register your administrators. Click here to Register for the NMPED: New Admin. Training Educator Evaluation & Observation Jan. 7-8, 2020
