

Programs of Study (by content area)

Students who successfully complete a program of study that demonstrates competency in two content areas may use the program of study as a competency-based alternative in both content areas should the student need to demonstrate competency in both.

Course names, codes, and sequences for each program of study are outlined in the Program of Study Required Coursework document available on the Graduation Requirements web page.

The links below offer additional information about organizations offering programming in alignment with the career clusters and programs of study.
