

3RD GRADE WRITING STANDARDS BREAKDOWN

Anchor Standard/ Domain Name: Writing

Text Types and Purposes: Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.

Standard Text:

W.3.1 Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons.

- a) Introduce the topic or text they are writing about, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure that lists reasons.
- b) Provide reasons that support the opinion.
- c) Use linking words and phrases (e.g., because, therefore, since, for example) to connect opinion and reasons.
- d) Provide a concluding statement or section.

Students who can demonstrate understanding can:

- pick an issue or topic and determine if they agree or disagree with the issue.
- develop an opinion.
- use text evidence or other supporting evidence to support opinion and point of view on topics or texts.
- organize supporting evidence of opinion into a structured list of reasons using linking words and phrases with the evidence that supports it.
- wrap up opinion with a conclusion that restates and emphasizes point of view.

Vertical Alignment to Previous Grades:

W.1.1, W.2.1

Vertical Alignment to Future Grades:

W.4.1, W.5.1

Clarification Statement:

The teacher supports the development of being able to write opinion pieces by exposing students to rich texts that clearly take positions and provide lists of reasons in support of these positions.

Vocabulary for Teacher Development:

- editing – the process by which an author improves a text by correcting errors in grammar and/or conventions, (e.g., grammatical, structural, etc.), verifying precision of language, eliminating redundancy, and more. linking words and
- phrases – words and phrases that connect one sentence, paragraph, idea, etc. to a subsequent one, allowing readers to see the connection between such elements and to progress smoothly from one idea to the next (e.g., first, next, last; furthermore; on the other hand; etc.)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● point of view – a narrator’s, writer’s, or speaker’s position with regard to the events of a narrative; one’s stance on events or information given his/her orientation (physically and/or mentally) to the events or information; the vantage point from which one relates the events of a story or makes an argument ● purpose – the reason for a particular action or creation (e.g., literary work or speech); the reason for which something exists (e.g., to persuade, to inform, to express, and/or to entertain) ● reasons/reasoning – an explanation or justification for a claim, action, or value statement; the process of thinking through an argument, forming judgments, and drawing conclusions using a process of logic ● revision/revising – the process of rereading something that has been produced and making changes in order to clarify meaning, improve cohesion, evaluate the effectiveness of information and evidence, etc.; distinguished from editing which is largely related to correcting errors ● strengthen – to increase the rhetorical and/or argumentative impact of a written or spoken work by revising for concision, clarity, and cohesion; providing better and/or more evidence as support for claims and value statements; eliminating wordiness, redundancy, and confusion; etc. ● task – (as part of the task, purpose, and audience relationship) – the specific product or type of product one is completing (e.g., editorial article, friendly letter, etc.), which greatly influences the choices an author makes (e.g., one would likely adopt an informal register when writing a friendly letter) ● topic – the subject or matter being discussed or written about in a text, speech, etc.

Vertical Alignment to Previous Grades:	Clarification Statement: The teacher in third grade needs to model the writing process in order to help students understand the structure of writing. This

Vertical Alignment to Future Grades: W.4.4, W.5.4	begins by helping students identify an appropriate topic for writing. The teacher works with students to facilitate the use of graphic organizers during the research process in order to help students organize the information around the topic under study. The teacher guides students' writing so it is organized to clearly explain the identified topic and provide multiple facts and or definitions that support this explanation with related information. Throughout the writing, students use linking words and phrases to connect ideas within a category of information. The writing includes a concluding statement or paragraph.
Anchor Standard/ Domain Name: Writing Production and Distribution of Writing: Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

Peer review and editing are important parts of this process. The teacher also conducts writing conferences with students during the drafting and revising processes to support students in third grade with writing pieces that include an identified topic with relevant facts, definitions, and details to explain the identified topic. During the editing process, the teacher and peers guide students and consider the task and purpose of the piece. Guiding questions for this purpose might include "Do I identify my topic?" and "Are the facts, definitions, and details grouped in a way that clearly explains my topic and achieves my purpose for writing?"
Anchor Standard/ Domain Name: Writing Production and Distribution of Writing: Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

Vertical Alignment to Previous Grades: N/A Vertical Alignment to Future Grades: W.4.10, W.5.10	Clarification Statement: To build a foundation for college and career readiness, students need to learn to use writing as a way of offering and supporting opinions, demonstrating understanding of the subjects they are studying, and conveying real and imagined experiences and events. They learn to appreciate that a key purpose of writing is to communicate clearly to an external, sometimes unfamiliar audience, and they begin to adapt the form and content of their writing to accomplish a particular task and purpose. They develop the capacity to build knowledge on a subject through research projects and to respond analytically to literary and informational sources. To meet these goals, students must devote significant time and effort to writing, producing numerous pieces over short and extended time frames throughout the year.
