Section 2: World Languages Content Review

PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:

- Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Student Edition, Teacher Edition, or Student Workbook (Review Set).
- For this section, you may enter one citation per criterion. (Column C) Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best exemplifies the criterion.
- The Reviewer will be providing a score based on the citation given.
- Each criterion will be scored as "Meets expectations," "Partially meets expectations," or "Does not meet expectations."
 - NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.

Reviewer directions for World Languages Content Review:

Columns C-F: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Student Edition, Teacher Edition, or Student Workbook for each criterion. Review the cited material and score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the criterion:

- M = Meets the criterion
- P = Partially meets the criterion
- D = Does not meet the criterion

Evidence for the publisher citations is optional as you review the materials. You may be asked to provide evidence if the need arises.

- Each score cell will turn green as you score the materials.

NOTE: All evidence provided must be written in English.

Columns G-J: Using the Teacher Edition, Student Edition, or Student Workbook, provide a citation for each criterion. Review the cited material, score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the criterion, and provide evidence to support your determination:

- M = Meets the criterion
- P = Partially meets the criterion
- D = Does not meet the criterion

- Each score cell and evidence cell will turn green as you score the materials.

NOTE: All evidence provided must be written in English.

Criteria	Provider/Publisher Criteria 9-12 World Languages Content	Provider/Publisher Citation	Score	Reviewer Evidence for Publisher's Citation	Reviewer Citation	Score	Reviewer Evidence	Comments or Feedback
Text Selection and Range of Texts: Texts are worthy of students' time and attention (of quality, rigorous, and at the right text complexity for grade level, student, and task)
1	Materials pay careful attention to building knowledge systematically through reading, writing, listening and speaking in the target language about topics under study. (e.g., classics, contemporary, sciences, humanities, social studies, cultural studies, etc.)
2	Materials include a wide variety of authentic texts that include all modes of communication: Interpretive, Interpersonal and Presentational.
Text Selection – Quality of Texts: High-quality texts are worth reading closely and exhibit exceptional craft and thought and/or provide useful information.
3	Materials provide content rich and well-crafted texts, representing the best and most authentic texts available in a variety of informational text structures. (e.g., speeches, editorials, newspaper articles, essays, literary nonfiction).
4	Materials provide assignments with activities requiring student responses that promote respect for all people regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, age, gender, language or disability.
5	Materials provide an introduction to the lesson including the comprehension questions (i.e., focus questions or guiding questions) the student will be expected to answer at the conclusion of the classroom instruction.
Text-Dependent and Text-Specific Questions: Questions in the materials are high - quality text-dependent and text - specific questions. The overwhelming majority of these questions are text-specific and draw student attention to the particulars in the text.
6	Materials provide text-dependent questions and tasks that require use of textual evidence, including supporting valid inferences from the text.
7	Materials provide questions and tasks that assess the depth and complexity of analytical thinking required by the standards at each proficiency level.
8	Materials provide questions and tasks that support students in unpacking the academic language (vocabulary and syntax) prevalent in complex texts.
9	Materials provide opportunities for rich and rigorous evidence-based discussions and writing about texts.

Scaffolding and Supports

10	Materials support students' literacy skills (understanding and comprehension) over the course of the school year through increasingly complex text to develop independence of proficiency level skills.
11	Materials provide real-world activities for student practice with natural language (e.g. mock interviews, presentations, conversations).
12	Materials provide a scope and sequence that clearly guides students to demonstrate their independent capacity to read and write at the appropriate level of complexity and sophistication defined by the standards.
13	Materials assess students at a variety of knowledge levels (Bloom's, Depth of Knowledge, etc.) centered on proficiency level texts aligned and measured against the adopted New Mexico Standards expectations.
14	Materials include instruction and practice of the grammar and conventions/language standards for proficiency level as applied in increasingly sophisticated contexts, with opportunities for application in context.
15	Materials contain visual representations (such as photographs, illustrations, word lists, charts, graphs, etc) to assist students' comprehension.

Materials are coherent and consistent with the standards that all students should study in order to be college and career ready.

1	Materials attend to the full intent of the content contained in the standards for all students.
2	Materials, when used as designed, allow students to fully learn each standard.
3	Materials require students to engage in content at a level of sophistication appropriate to the grade level under review.
4	Materials are coherent and make meaningful connections in a single course and throughout the series, where appropriate and where required by the standards.

Materials are well designed and take into account effective lesson structure and pacing.

5	The Teacher's Edition presents learning progressions to provide an overview of the scope and sequence of skills and concepts. (Publisher citation only required.)
6	Within each lesson of the Teacher's Edition, there are clear measurable learning objectives and opportunities for differentiated instruction.
7	Within each lesson of the Teacher's Edition, there are clear measurable language objectives and opportunities for differentiated instruction.
8	The design of the assignments is not haphazard; tasks are given in intentional sequences.
9	The visual design (whether in print or digital) maintains a consistent layout that supports student engagement with the subject.

10	Materials incorporate a glossary, footnotes, recordings, pictures, and/or other features that aid students and teachers in using the material effectively, with minimal distraction.
11	The materials provide focused resources to support students' acquisition of both general academic vocabulary and content-specific vocabulary.
Materials support teacher planning, learning, and understanding of the standards.
12	Materials provide a list of lessons in the teacher's edition (in print or clearly distinguished/accessible as a teacher's edition in digital materials), cross-referencing the standards addressed and providing an estimated instructional time for each lesson, chapter and unit (i.e., pacing guide). (Publisher citation only required.)
13	Materials support teachers in planning and implementing effective learning experiences by providing instructional strategies (such as quality questioning, grouping strategies, and discourse between teacher and students) to help guide students' academic development.
14	Materials contain a teacher's edition with annotations and suggestions on how to present the content in the student edition and in the ancillary material. Where applicable, materials include teacher guidance for the use of embedded technology to support and enhance student learning.
15	Materials contain a teacher's edition that explains the role of the specific standards in the context of the overall series.
Materials offer teachers resources and tools to collect ongoing data about student progress on the standards.
16	Materials provide assessments that measure student progress in all strands of the adopted New Mexico Content Standards for the content under review.
17	Materials provide multiple embedded formative and summative assessments (such as performance-based tasks, questions, research, investigations, and projects), clearly defining which standards are being assessed.
18	Materials include aligned scoring guidelines for assessments, such as rubrics, that provide teachers guidance in interpreting student performance and suggestions for further instruction, differentiation, remediation or acceleration.
19	Materials provide alternative assessment options for English learners, culturally and linguistically diverse students, and special needs students.

20	Materials provide students with ongoing review and practice, such as self-monitoring, for the purpose of retaining previously acquired knowledge.
Materials support effective use of technology to enhance student learning.
21	Digital materials (either included as part of the core materials or as part of a digital curriculum) are web-based and compatible with multiple internet browsers (e.g., Internet Explorer, Firefox, Google Chrome, etc.). In addition, materials are “platform neutral” (i.e., are compatible with multiple operating systems such as Windows and Apple and are not proprietary to any single platform) and allow the use of tablets and mobile devices. (Publisher citation only required.)
22	Materials include opportunities to assess student understandings and knowledge using technology.
23	Materials integrate opportunities for digital learning into the text.
Materials can be easily customized for individual learners.
24	Materials can be customized to meet the needs of different student populations.
25	The Teacher’s Edition provides differentiated instruction strategies and/or activities to meet the needs of all students including below proficiency and advanced learners.
26	Materials include activities for students to make interdisciplinary connections and/or connections with their personal experiences.
Materials give all students extensive opportunities and support to explore key concepts.
27	Materials provide strategies to help teachers sequence or scaffold lessons so that the content is accessible to all learners.
28	Materials provide support, accommodations, and modifications for English Language Learners, culturally and linguistically diverse students, and other special populations that will support their regular and active participation in learning content (e.g., modifying vocabulary).
29	Materials encourage teachers to draw upon culture and home language to facilitate learning.
30	Materials provide strategies for teachers to inform and engage parents and caregivers of all learners, including culturally and linguistically diverse students, about the program and suggestions for how they can help support student progress and achievement. (Publisher citation only required.)

31	Materials include opportunities that encourage creative thinking and effective problem solving skills.
Materials take into account cultural perspectives.
32	Materials inform culturally and linguistically responsive pedagogy by affirming students' backgrounds, setting high expectations for culturally and linguistically diverse students, and ensuring best instructional practices that are inclusive and student-centered.
33	Materials provide a balanced use of examples and illustrations to create cultural bias-free, stereotype-free, and barrier-free instruction.
34	Materials positively reflect the diversity in culture, languages, traditions, beliefs, values, and customs represented within the community, state, and nation.
35	Materials provide examples, contexts, illustrations, and exercises for students related to real-life experiences and cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
Inclusion of Culturally Responsive Lens (CR)
36	The instructional material includes tools to relate the content area appropriately to the diversity in culture and language.
37	The instructional materials include tools that demonstrate multiple perspectives in a specific concept.
38	The instructional materials engage students in critical reflection about their own lives and societies.
39	Materials address multiple ethnic descriptions, interpretations, or perspectives of events and experiences.
