Professional summary of material:

The Wonders Fourth grade curriculum provides ample opportunities for students to engage with high quality, engaging texts and supporting materials that are aligned to the fourth grade CCSS. Wonders is broken up into 6 units that cover the course of the year. Each unit is split into 3 separate genre studies. which include informational and literature texts in both a Reading Writing Companion consumable book as well as a hardcover Literature Anthology. Each genre study is concluded with a spiraled week of instruction to measure student progress toward mastery. The curriculum includes a detailed scope and sequence that outlines the progression of standards throughout the year, in addition to weekly lesson plans and differentiated instruction guides to aid in teacher planning. Phonics, fluency, comprehension skills, spelling, grammar and writing are also integrated within the curriculum and are embedded with various digital tools and games to help students gain a deeper understanding of the material. Writing instruction in particular is embedded throughout the curriculum with small writing projects as well as larger culminating projects that work through the writing process. The Wonders curriculum is aligned, easy to use and contains significant supplemental material to help teachers meet the ever changing needs of their students.

Reviewer #: 33

Background and experience:

Level 2 teacher with 7 years of experience teaching elementary education. Teaching endorsements in ELA and TESOL.

Professional summary of material:

This curriculum covers the 4th grade CCSS standards across all ELA content standards. Units provide teachers with sample lesson plans and clearly defined layouts that present objectives taught in each lesson. Some of the text selections are poetry, myths, plays, informational works, autobiographies, expository texts, historical fiction and informational fiction. The curriculum provides scaffolded ELL support for each lesson and activity. The materials provide numerous online activities that include additional readings, culturally relevant lessons, games for student practice, inquiry space and others. The text is organized into units based on genre studies. There are multiple layers of support for English Language Learners, students that are approaching level, students that are on level, and advanced students throughout each unit's teacher edition. Different cultures are addressed through diverse representations within myths, tall tales, historical fiction, biographies, as well as some Hispanic and African American selections. Writing tasks at the end of each unit provide students with opportunities to create pieces of writing, including informative, narrative, opinion and research writing. The materials incorporate a variety of different projects that are included throughout each unit that provide students the ability to integrate technology into their work and practice presenting projects to their peers.
