Domain 2
The Professional Environment

2A: Creates a Respectful and Emotionally Safe Culture that Promotes Collaboration

Innovating	Applying	Developing	Not Demonstrating
Teachers work collaboratively with the Specialist to co-develop and participate in improvement-focused professional learning. Teachers indicate that their contributions are respected and valued, promoting a culture of collaboration.	Most teachers participate in professional learning initiated by the Specialist. Some teachers initiate contact with the Specialist to seek support for collaborative efforts to improve instructional practices. Teachers indicate that the instructional improvement efforts are respectful and responsive.	Many teachers participate in professional learning initiated by the Specialist, but there is limited evidence of collaboration in designing the professional learning or in setting goals for improved instruction. Teachers indicate that they feel relatively safe participating in the professional learning developed by the Specialist.	Specialist has not created an environment where teachers feel safe asking for assistance. There is no evidence of collaboration in addressing problems of practice.

2B: Promotes a Culture of continuous Instructional Improvement

Innovating	Applying	Developing	Not Demonstrating
Teachers initiate instructional improvement efforts, working collaboratively with the Specialist to define the goals, processes, and methods to measure the implementation and impact of the initiatives.	Specialist creates a culture in which continuous improvement is acknowledged as critical work for all staff. Teachers feel comfortable in reaching out for support in their instructional improvement efforts.	Specialist attempts to build a culture of continuous improvement are mixed. Some teachers acknowledge the importance of continuous improvement and accept support from the Specialist.	Specialist does not communicate that instructional improvement is a continuous process, instead implying that it is a compliance-driven event.
