

Assessment for Learning Conference 2022 Reminder

The PED Assessment for Learning Conference will take place virtually on January 11-12, 2022, and will feature presentations from the district and national assessment experts. See the Save the Dates flyer for a list of sessions. Registration for the conference is now open. All educators are invited to attend. For more information, please email adam.rios2@state.nm.us.

International Assessment Studies

The Assessment Bureau acknowledges profound appreciation for schools that participated in the Program for International Student Assessment (PISA) field test and the Progress in International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS). The following bullets highlight facts on this year's participation:

- PIRLS: More than 6,700 students were assessed in 383 sessions in 177 international schools.
- 57 of these sessions were conducted in the November extension period.
- PISA: More than 1700 students were assessed in 47 international schools.

Welcome Back from Winter Break!

The Assessment Bureau hopes you had a wonderful winter break. We look forward to assisting you in 2022!

NAEP 2022 Prepare for Assessment Tasks:

School Coordinators should complete all of the following Prepare for Assessment Tasks before the Pre-Assessment Review Call:

- Review and verify the list of students selected for NAEP.
- Complete information about how Students with Disabilities and English learners will participate in NAEP.
- Plan assessment day logistics.
- Notify parents/guardians of sampled students.
- Manage the school questionnaire.
- Encourage participation and motivate students to do their best.

Winter 2021-22 DTC Training: Next Sessions

Please note the next two training sessions will take place on January 14. The training flyer with the entire session schedule is posted here. Register here for the Winter 2021-22 District Test Coordinator \(DTC\) Training.

Recorded Winter 2021-22 DTC Training: On Canvas

Thank you for joining the Assessment Bureau for the first two sessions of the Winter 2021-22 DTC training series. The recordings and links to all the training materials are housed in a new Canvas Training course named DTC Training 2021-2022, and is currently available to anyone with access to the Fall training resources. DTCs unable to access the Canvas training should contact axel.hernandez@state.nm.us for assistance.

DTCs unable to attend a live session of the Winter DTC training series should review the material via Canvas. Winter training certificates will be distributed upon completion of the last training in the series.
