Section 1: Standards Review: Social Studies

PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:

- Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) and Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). The cited Teacher Edition, Student Edition, and/or Student Workbook should correspond with titles and ISBNs entered on the Form F cover page, whether in print, online, or both. The review set submitted to the summer review institute should also correspond with what is cited on the Form F. If the review set is an online platform only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams.
- For this section, the provider/publisher will enter two citations per standard (Columns D and H). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. The citations should be concise and should allow the reviewer to easily determine that all components of the standard have been met. Each citation should cover no more than 3 pages within the materials.
 - Column D: Enter one citation in Column D from the Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
 - Column H: Enter one citation in Column H from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
- The material will be scored for alignment with each standard as “Meets expectations,” “Partially meets expectations,” or “Does not meet expectations” based on the citations provided.

NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.

Reviewer directions for Social Studies Standards Review:	Columns D-G: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Student Edition or Student Workbook (student-facing core material), print and/or digital for the standard. 57	HS.CIV. B.5.a	(a) using disciplinary and interdisciplinary lenses to understand the characteristics and causes of local, regional, and global problems; instances of such problems in multiple contexts; and challenges and opportunities faced by those trying to address these problems over time and place; and
58	HS.CIV. B.5.b	(b) applying a range of deliberative and democratic strategies and procedures to make decisions and take action in their classrooms, schools, and out-of-school contexts.

CCSS STANDARDS FOR LITERACY IN HISTORY/SOCIAL STUDIES
Reading Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12
Key Ideas and Details
59	CCSS.RH. 11-12.1	Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, connecting insights gained from specific details to an understanding of the text as a whole.
60	CCSS.RH. 11-12.2	Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas.
61	CCSS.RH. 11-12.3	Evaluate various explanations for actions or events and determine which explanation best accords with textual evidence, acknowledging where the text leaves matters uncertain.
Craft and Structure
62	CCSS.RH. 11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
63	CCSS.RH. 11-12.5	Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.
64	CCSS.RH. 11-12.6	Evaluate authors' differing points of view on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
65	CCSS.RH. 11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
66	CCSS.RH. 11-12.8	Evaluate an author's premises, claims, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other information.
67	CCSS.RH. 11-12.9	Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.
Range of Reading & Level of Text Complexity

68	CCSS.RH.11-12.10	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 11-CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
Writing Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12
Text Types and Purposes
69	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1	Write arguments focused on discipline-specific content.
70	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences the claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
71	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant data and evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both claim(s) and counterclaims in a discipline-appropriate form that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
72	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1C	Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
73	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1D	Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
74	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from or supports the argument presented.
75	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2	Write informative/explanatory texts, including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/experiments, or technical processes.
76	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2A	Introduce a topic and organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
77	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2B	Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.
78	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2C	Use varied transitions and sentence structures to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.
79	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2D	Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic; convey a knowledgeable stance in a style that responds to the discipline and context as well as to the expertise of likely readers.
80	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation provided (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
Production and Distribution of Writing
81	CCSS.WHST.11-12.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
82	CCSS.WHST.11-12.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
83	CCSS.WHST.11-12.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
Research to Build and Present Knowledge
84	CCSS.WHST.11-12.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
85	CCSS.WHST.11-12.8	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the specific task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation
86	CCSS.WHST.11-12.9	Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
Range of Writing
87	CCSS.WHST.11-12.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for reflection and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

FOCUS AREA 1 CONTENT AND DESIGN: Instructional materials provide a wide variety of texts, visuals, and multimedia content that develop students' knowledge and skills.
1	Instructional materials include and/or reference informational texts and literary works that are significant to historical time periods and cultural groups.
2	Instructional materials include historical and present day maps, charts, graphs, diagrams, artworks, and illustrations to enable spatial, abstract, and critical thinking in various problem solving contexts.
3	Instructional materials identify multimedia connections that align with a variety of learning styles and enhance students' analytical skills.
FOCUS AREA 2 SOCIAL STUDIES SKILLS: Instructional materials provide strategies to develop students' skills that are crucial to understanding Social Studies content.
4	Instructional materials include multicultural images that engage students in historical inquiry as well as develop understanding of complex events or relationships.
5	Instructional materials provide strategies to elicit discourse among students on Social Studies topics.
6	Instructional materials contain text-dependent/ text-specific questions with activities that build to a culminating task that integrates depth and complexity of analytical thinking.
7	Instructional materials orient historical events toward contemporary local, regional, and global issues in order to activate student agency.
8	Instructional materials are up to date and present current evidence and new interpretations.
9	Instructional materials provide strategies for the effective use of scholarly sources in student writing.
FOCUS AREA 3 ACCESSIBILITY: Instructional materials provide differentiation for multiple learning styles, students with exceptionalities, English Language Learners (ELLs), and cultural differences.
10	Instructional materials provide all students (e.g. those who read below grade level, students with special needs, gifted students, and ELL) with extensive opportunities to encounter and comprehend grade-level and complex texts.
11	Instructional materials assess students at a variety of knowledge levels (Bloom's, Depth of Knowledge, etc.).
FOCUS AREA 4 EQUITY: Instructional materials provide equitable representation of a wide range of perspectives.
12	Instructional materials provide equitable inclusion of accurate historical stories and perspectives beyond Eurocentric cultural scripts.
13	Instructional materials engage students in learning about others' history, culture, identity and region while allowing students to maintain his/her/their own cultural integrity.
FOCUS AREA 5 TEACHER INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES/STRATEGIES: Instructional materials include resources for research based instructional strategies and advanced Social Studies concepts.

FOCUS AREA 1 COHERENCE:
Instructional materials are coherent and consistent with the New Mexico Content Standards that all students should study in order to be college- and career-ready.
1	Instructional materials address the full content contained in the standards for all students by grade level.
2	Instructional materials support students to show mastery of each standard.
3	Instructional materials require students to engage at a level of maturity appropriate to the grade level under review.
4	Instructional materials are coherent, making meaningful connections for students by linking the standards within a lesson and unit.
FOCUS AREA 2 WELL-DESIGNED LESSONS:
Instructional materials take into account effective lesson structure and pacing.
5	The Teacher Edition presents learning progressions to provide an overview of the scope and sequence of skills and concepts. The design of the assignments show a purposeful sequencing of teaching and learning expectations.
6	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable, standards-aligned content objectives.
7	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable language objectives tied directly to the content objectives.
8	Instructional materials provide focused resources to support students' acquisition of both general academic vocabulary and content-specific vocabulary.
9	The visual design of the instructional materials (whether in print or digital) maintains a consistent layout that supports student engagement with the subject.
10	Instructional materials incorporate features that aid students and teachers in making meaning of the text.
11	Instructional materials provide students with ongoing review and practice for the purpose of retaining previously acquired knowledge.
FOCUS AREA 3 RESOURCES FOR PLANNING:
Instructional materials provide teacher resources to support planning, learning, and understanding of the New Mexico Content Standards.
12	Instructional materials provide a list of lessons in the Teacher Edition (in print or clearly distinguished/accessable as a teacher's edition in digital materials), cross-referencing the standards addressed and providing an estimated instructional time for each lesson, chapter, and unit. (Publisher citation only required.)
13	Instructional materials support teachers with instructional strategies to help guide students' academic development.
14	Instructional materials include a Teacher Edition with useful annotations and suggestions on how to present the content in the student edition and in the supporting material.
15	Instructional materials integrate opportunities for digital learning, including interactive digital components.
FOCUS AREA 4 ASSESSMENT:
Instructional materials offer teachers a variety of assessment resources and tools to collect ongoing data about student progress related to the standards.
16	Instructional materials provide a variety of assessments that measure student progress in all strands of the standards for the content under review. (Adopted New Mexico Content Standards for 2022: New Mexico Social Studies Standards and New Mexico Core Arts Standards)
17	Instructional materials provide multiple formative and summative assessments, clearly defining which standards are being assessed through content and language objectives.
18	Instructional materials provide scoring guides for assessments that are aligned with the standards they address, and that offer teachers guidance in interpreting student performance and suggestions for further instruction, differentiation, remediation and/or acceleration.
19	Instructional materials provide appropriate assessment alternatives for English Learners, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, advanced students, and special needs students.
20	Instructional materials include opportunities to assess student understanding and knowledge of the standards using technology.
