Section 1: Standards Review: Social Studies

PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:

- Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) and Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). The cited Teacher Edition, Student Edition, and/or Student Workbook should correspond with titles and ISBNs entered on the Form F cover page, whether in print, online, or both. The review set submitted to the summer review institute should also correspond with what is cited on the Form F. If the review set is an online platform only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams.
- For this section, the provider/publisher will enter two citations per standard (Columns D and H). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. The citations should be concise and should allow the reviewer to easily determine that all components of the standard have been met. Each citation should cover no more than 3 pages within the materials.
 - o Column D: Enter one citation in Column D from the Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
 - o Column H: Enter one citation in Column H from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
- The material will be scored for alignment with each standard as "Meets expectations," "Partially meets expectations," or "Does not meet expectations" based on the citations provided.
- o NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.

Columns D-G: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Student Edition or Student Workbook (student-facing core material), print and/or digital) for the standard. Review the cited material and score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the standard:
 o M = Meets the standard
 o P = Partially meets the standard
 o D = Does not meet the standard
 Evidence for each publisher citation is required if you score the materials with a D. For your evidence for each standard that scores a D, choose one of the options from the dropdown menu in Column G. If the reason for scoring the materials with a D is not one of the dropdown options, enter your own evidence statement in the cell in Column G. o Any cells grayed out do not require a citation or evidence.
The score cells in those rows will automatically populate.
 o Each score cell (column E) will turn green as you score the materials.

Columns H-K: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material), print and/or digital) for the standard. Review the cited material, score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the standard, and provide evidence to support your determination:
 o M = Meets the standard
 o P = Partially meets the standard
 o D = Does not meet the standard
 o Any cells grayed out do not require a citation or evidence.
The score cells in those rows will automatically populate.
 o Each score cell (column I) and evidence cell (column K) will turn green as you score the materials.

F. INQUIRY
34	HS.WH. F.1	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of constructing compelling and supporting questions by creating compelling questions representing key ideas in world history.
35	HS.WH. F.2	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of gathering and evaluating sources by:
36	HS.WH. F.2.a	(a) evaluating the credibility of sources from a range of media (print, internet, audio, visual) by examining origin, author, context, content, and corroborative value; and
37	HS.WH. F.2.b	(b) gathering relevant information from credible sources representing a wide range of views and noting inconsistencies in the information.
38	HS.WH. F.3	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of developing claims by:
39	HS.WH. F.3.a	(a) developing claims and analyzing counterclaims about the significance of historical events using evidence that draws directly and substantively from multiple sources; and
40	HS.WH. F.3.b	(b) analyzing evidence to detect inconsistencies within the evidence to revise or strengthen claims.
41	HS.WH. F.4	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of communicating and critiquing conclusions by presenting arguments and explanations that reach a range of audiences using print and oral technologies (e.g. posters, essays, letters, debates, speeches, reports, maps) and digital technologies (e.g. internet, social media, digital documentary).
42	HS.WH. F.5	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of taking informed action by:
43	HS.WH. F.5.a	(a) evaluating historical and contemporary sources of information relating to local, regional, and global problems and identifying challenges and opportunities faced by those trying to address these problems;
44	HS.WH. F.5.b	(b) assessing options for individual and collective action to address local, regional, and global problems; and
45	HS.WH. F.5.c	(c) applying a range of strategies and procedures to make decisions and take action in classrooms, schools, and out-of-school civic contexts.
GEOGRAPHY STANDARDS
A. HIGH SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY
46	HS.GEOG. A.1	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of geographic representations and reasoning by:
47	HS.GEOG. A.1.a	(a) analyzing and evaluating the characteristics, purposes, and uses of geographic tools, knowledge, and skills;
48	HS.GEOG. A.1.b	(b) creating maps to display and explain the spatial patterns of culture and environment;
49	HS.GEOG. A.1.c	(c) interpreting geographic characteristics of cultures, economies, and political systems;
50	HS.GEOG. A.1.d	(d) analyzing geographic representations to explain changes over time; and
51	HS.GEOG. A.1.e	(e) applying geographic knowledge and geospatial skills to interpret the past and present to make informed decisions.
52	HS.GEOG. A.2	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of location, place, and region by:
53	HS.GEOG. A.2.a	(a) interpreting the reciprocal relationship between physical, geographical locations, and the patterns and processes humans create within them;
54	HS.GEOG. A.2.b	(b) evaluating the process of place-making and the development of place-based identity; and
55	HS.GEOG. A.2.c	(c) explaining the distinguishing features of formal, functional, and perceptual regions.
56	HS.GEOG. A.3	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of movement, population, and systems by:
57	HS.GEOG. A.3.a	(a) explaining the causes, characteristics, and impact of human movement (migration, immigration, emigration) and settlement patterns at the local, national, and global scale;
58	HS.GEOG. A.3.b	(b) evaluating the causes, characteristics, and impact of diffusion: the spread of ideas, religion, beliefs, cultural practices and traits, language, artifacts, methods, technologies, and diseases over time;
59	HS.GEOG. A.3.c	(c) describing how human systems, perceptions, and identities shape places and regions over time;
60	HS.GEOG. A.3.d	(d) analyzing and predicting how location, place, and region impact the evolution of human perspectives and identities;
61	HS.GEOG. A.3.e	(e) describing how particular historical events and developments shape human processes and systems in a given place or region over time; and
62	HS.GEOG. A.3.f	(f) predicting future social, political, economic, cultural, spiritual, and environmental opportunities, and obstacles associated with movement, population, decision-making, and perspectives in a given place or region.
63	HS.GEOG. A.4	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of human-environmental interactions and sustainability by:
64	HS.GEOG. A.4.a	(a) developing reasoned ethical judgements about people, places, events, phenomena, ideas, or developments, and determining appropriate ways to respond;
65	HS.GEOG. A.4.b	(b) analyzing shifting United States government environmental policies and regulations in response to changing human-environment interactions;

69	HS.GEOG. A.4.f	(f) analyzing how the forces of cooperation and conflict within and among people, nations, and empires influence the division and control Earth's surface and resources; and
70	HS.GEOG. A.4.G	(g) assessing how social, economic, political, and environmental developments at global, national, regional, and local levels affect the sustainability of modern and traditional cultures.
B. INQUIRY
71	HS.GEOG. B.1	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of constructing compelling and supporting questions by:
72	HS.GEOG. B.1.a	(a) creating compelling questions representing key ideas within the disciplines; and
73	HS.GEOG. B.1.b	(b) developing supporting questions that contribute to an inquiry and demonstrate how, through engaging source work, new compelling and supporting questions emerge.
74	HS.GEOG. B.2	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of gathering and evaluating sources by:
75	HS.GEOG. B.2.a	(a) gathering relevant information from multiple sources representing a wide range of views while using the origin, authority, structure, context, and corroborative value of the sources to guide the selection; and
76	HS.GEOG. B.2.b	(b) evaluating the credibility of a source by examining how experts value the source.
77	HS.GEOG. B.3	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of developing claims by:
78	HS.GEOG. B.3.a	(a) identifying evidence that draws information directly and substantively from multiple sources to detect inconsistencies in evidence to revise or strengthen claims; and
79	HS.GEOG. B.3.b	(b) refining claims and counterclaims attending to precision, significance, and knowledge conveyed through the claim while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both.
80	HS.GEOG. B.4	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of communicating and critiquing conclusions by:
81	HS.GEOG. B.4.a	(a) constructing arguments using precise and knowledgeable claims, with evidence from multiple sources, while acknowledging counterclaims and evidentiary weaknesses;
82	HS.GEOG. B.4.b	(b) constructing explanations using reasoning, correct sequence, examples, and details with significant and pertinent information and data, while acknowledging the strengths and weaknesses of the explanations given its purpose;
83	HS.GEOG. B.4.c	(c) presenting adaptations of arguments and explanations that feature evocative ideas and perspectives on issues and topics to reach a range of audiences and venues outside the classroom using print, oral, and digital technologies; and
84	HS.GEOG. B.4.d	(d) critiquing the use of claims and evidence in arguments for credibility.
85	HS.GEOG. B.5	The student shall demonstrate an understanding of taking informed action by:
86	HS.GEOG. B.5.a	(a) using disciplinary and interdisciplinary lenses to understand the characteristics and causes of local, regional, and global problems; instances of such problems in multiple contexts; and challenges and opportunities faced by those trying to address these problems over time and place; and
87	HS.GEOG. B.5.b	(b) applying a range of deliberative and democratic strategies and procedures to make decisions and take action in their classrooms, schools, and out-of-school contexts.

CCSS STANDARDS FOR LITERACY IN HISTORY/SOCIAL STUDIES
Reading Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12
Key Ideas and Details
88	CCSS.RH. 11-12.1	Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, connecting insights gained from specific details to an understanding of the text as a whole.
89	CCSS.RH. 11-12.2	Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas.
90	CCSS.RH. 11-12.3	Evaluate various explanations for actions or events and determine which explanation best accords with textual evidence, acknowledging where the text leaves matters uncertain.
Craft and Structure
91	CCSS.RH. 11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
92	CCSS.RH. 11-12.5	Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.
93	CCSS.RH. 11-12.6	Evaluate authors' differing points of view on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
94	CCSS.RH. 11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
95	CCSS.RH. 11-12.8	Evaluate an author's premises, claims, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other information.
96	CCSS.RH. 11-12.9	Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.
Range of Reading & Level of Text Complexity
97	CCSS.RH. 11-12.10	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 11-CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
Writing Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12
Text Types and Purposes
98	CCSS.WHST. 11-12.1	Write arguments focused on discipline-specific content.
99	CCSS.WHST. 11-12.1A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences the claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
100	CCSS.WHST. 11-12.1B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant data and evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both claim(s) and counterclaims in a discipline-appropriate form that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
101	CCSS.WHST. 11-12.1C	Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.

102	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1D	Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
103	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from or supports the argument presented.
104	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2	Write informative/explanatory texts, including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/experiments, or technical processes.
105	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2A	Introduce a topic and organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
106	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2B	Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.
107	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2C	Use varied transitions and sentence structures to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.
108	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2D	Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic; convey a knowledgeable stance in a style that responds to the discipline and context as well as to the expertise of likely readers.
109	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation provided (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
Production and Distribution of Writing
110	CCSS.WHST.11-12.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
111	CCSS.WHST.11-12.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
112	CCSS.WHST.11-12.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
Research to Build and Present Knowledge
113	CCSS.WHST.11-12.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
114	CCSS.WHST.11-12.8	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the specific task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
115	CCSS.WHST.11-12.9	Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
Range of Writing
116	CCSS.WHST.11-12.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for reflection and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

FOCUS AREA 1 CONTENT AND DESIGN: Instructional materials provide a wide variety of texts, visuals, and multimedia content that develop students' knowledge and skills.
1	Instructional materials include and/or reference informational texts and literary works that are significant to historical time periods and cultural groups.
2	Instructional materials include historical and present day maps, charts, graphs, diagrams, artworks, and illustrations to enable spatial, abstract, and critical thinking in various problem solving contexts.
3	Instructional materials identify multimedia connections that align with a variety of learning styles and enhance students' analytical skills.
FOCUS AREA 2 SOCIAL STUDIES SKILLS: Instructional materials provide strategies to develop students' skills that are crucial to understanding Social Studies content.
4	Instructional materials include multicultural images that engage students in historical inquiry as well as develop understanding of complex events or relationships.
5	Instructional materials provide strategies to elicit discourse among students on Social Studies topics.
6	Instructional materials contain text-dependent/ text-specific questions with activities that build to a culminating task that integrates depth and complexity of analytical thinking.
7	Instructional materials orient historical events toward contemporary local, regional, and global issues in order to activate student agency.
8	Instructional materials are up to date and present current evidence and new interpretations.
9	Instructional materials provide strategies for the effective use of scholarly sources in student writing.
FOCUS AREA 3 ACCESSIBILITY: Instructional materials provide differentiation for multiple learning styles, students with exceptionalities, English Language Learners (ELLs), and cultural differences.
10	Instructional materials provide all students (e.g. those who read below grade level, students with special needs, gifted students, and ELL) with extensive opportunities to encounter and comprehend grade-level and complex texts.
11	Instructional materials assess students at a variety of knowledge levels (Bloom's, Depth of Knowledge, etc.).
FOCUS AREA 4 EQUITY: Instructional materials provide equitable representation of a wide range of perspectives.
12	Instructional materials provide equitable inclusion of accurate historical stories and perspectives beyond Eurocentric cultural scripts.
13	Instructional materials engage students in learning about others' history, culture, identity and region while allowing students to maintain his/her/their own cultural integrity.
FOCUS AREA 5 TEACHER INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES/STRATEGIES: Instructional materials include resources for research based instructional strategies and advanced Social Studies concepts.

FOCUS AREA 1 COHERENCE:
Instructional materials are coherent and consistent with the New Mexico Content Standards that all students should study in order to be college- and career-ready.
1	Instructional materials address the full content contained in the standards for all students by grade level.
2	Instructional materials support students to show mastery of each standard.
3	Instructional materials require students to engage at a level of maturity appropriate to the grade level under review.
4	Instructional materials are coherent, making meaningful connections for students by linking the standards within a lesson and unit.
FOCUS AREA 2 WELL-DESIGNED LESSONS:
Instructional materials take into account effective lesson structure and pacing.
5	The Teacher Edition presents learning progressions to provide an overview of the scope and sequence of skills and concepts. The design of the assignments show a purposeful sequencing of teaching and learning expectations.
6	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable, standards-aligned content objectives.
7	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable language objectives tied directly to the content objectives.
8	Instructional materials provide focused resources to support students' acquisition of both general academic vocabulary and content-specific vocabulary.
9	The visual design of the instructional materials (whether in print or digital) maintains a consistent layout that supports student engagement with the subject.
10	Instructional materials incorporate features that aid students and teachers in making meaning of the text.
11	Instructional materials provide students with ongoing review and practice for the purpose of retaining previously acquired knowledge.
FOCUS AREA 3 RESOURCES FOR PLANNING:
Instructional materials provide teacher resources to support planning, learning, and understanding of the New Mexico Content Standards.
12	Instructional materials provide a list of lessons in the Teacher Edition (in print or clearly distinguished/accessible as a teacher's edition in digital materials), cross-referencing the standards addressed and providing an estimated instructional time for each lesson, chapter, and unit. (Publisher citation only required.)
13	Instructional materials support teachers with instructional strategies to help guide students' academic development.
14	Instructional materials include a Teacher Edition with useful annotations and suggestions on how to present the content in the student edition and in the supporting material.
15	Instructional materials integrate opportunities for digital learning, including interactive digital components.
FOCUS AREA 4 ASSESSMENT:
Instructional materials offer teachers a variety of assessment resources and tools to collect ongoing data about student progress related to the standards.
16	Instructional materials provide a variety of assessments that measure student progress in all strands of the standards for the content under review. (Adopted New Mexico Content Standards for 2022: New Mexico Social Studies Standards and New Mexico Core Arts Standards)
17	Instructional materials provide multiple formative and summative assessments, clearly defining which standards are being assessed through content and language objectives.
18	Instructional materials provide scoring guides for assessments that are aligned with the standards they address, and that offer teachers guidance in interpreting student performance and suggestions for further instruction, differentiation, remediation and/or acceleration.
19	Instructional materials provide appropriate assessment alternatives for English Learners, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, advanced students, and special needs students.
20	Instructional materials include opportunities to assess student understanding and knowledge of the standards using technology.
FOCUS AREA 5 EXTENSIVE SUPPORT:
Instructional materials give all students extensive opportunities and support to explore key concepts.
21	Instructional materials can be customized or adapted to meet the needs of different student populations.
22	Instructional materials provide differentiated strategies and/or activities to meet the needs of students working below proficiency and those of advanced learners.
23	Instructional materials provide appropriate linguistic support for English Learners and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, and accommodations and modifications for other special populations that will support their regular and active participation in learning content.
24	Instructional materials provide strategies and resources for teachers to inform and engage parents, family members, and caregivers of all learners about the program and provide suggestions for how they can help support student progress and achievement. (Publisher citation only required.)
25	Instructional materials include opportunities for all students that encourage and support creative thinking and effective problem-solving skills.
FOCUS AREA 6 CULTURAL AND LINGUISTIC PERSPECTIVES:
Instructional materials represent a variety of cultural and linguistic perspectives.
26	Instructional materials inform culturally and linguistically responsive pedagogy by affirming students' backgrounds in the materials themselves and in the student discussions.

27	Instructional materials provide a collection of images, stories, and information, representing a broad range of demographic groups, and do not make generalizations or reinforce stereotypes.
28	Instructional materials provide context, illustrations, and activities for students to make interdisciplinary connections and/or connections to real-life experiences and diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
FOCUS AREA 7 INCLUSION OF CULTURALLY AND LINGUISTICALLY RESPONSIVE LENS: Instructional materials highlight diversity in culture and language through multiple perspectives.
29	Instructional materials include tools and resources to relate the content area appropriately to diversity in culture and language.
30	Instructional materials include tools and resources that demonstrate multiple perspectives in a specific concept.
31	Instructional materials engage students in critical reflection about their own lives and societies, including cultures past and present in New Mexico.
32	Instructional materials address multiple ethnic descriptions, interpretations, or perspectives of events and experiences.
