Section 1: Standards Review: Visual Arts
PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:
• Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) and Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). The cited Teacher Edition, Student Edition, and/or Student Workbook should correspond with titles and ISBNs entered on the Form F cover page, whether in print, online, or both. The review set submitted to the summer review institute should also correspond with what is cited on the Form F. If the review set is an online platform only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams. If the review set is in print only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams. • For this section, the provider/publisher will enter two citations per standard (Columns E and I). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. The citations should be concise and should allow the reviewer to easily determine that all components of the standard have been met. Each citation should cover no more than 3 pages within the materials. o Column E: Enter one citation in Column E from the Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation. o Column I: Enter one citation in Column I from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation. • The material will be scored for alignment with each standard as "Meets expectations," "Partially meets expectations," or "Does not meet expectations" based on the citations provided. o NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.
			Reviewer directions for Visual Arts Standards Review: Columns E-H: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Student Edition or Student Workbook (student-facing core material), print and/or digital) for the standard. Anchor Standard 1: Creating (Investigate/Plan/Make): Generate and conceptualize artistic ideas and work.
Enduring Understanding: Creativity and innovative thinking are essential life skills that can be developed.
Essential Questions: What conditions, attitudes, and behaviors support creativity and innovative thinking? What factors prevent or encourage people to take creative risks? How does collaboration expand the creative process?
1	VA: Cr1.1.6a	6	Combine concepts collaboratively to generate innovative ideas for creating art.
2	VA: Cr1.1.7a	7	Apply methods to overcome creative blocks.
3	VA: Cr1.1.8a	8	Document early stages of the creative process visually and/or verbally in traditional or new media.
Enduring Understanding: Artists and designers shape artistic investigations, following or breaking with traditions in pursuit of creative artmaking goals.
Essential Questions: How does knowing the contexts, histories, and traditions of art forms help us create works of art and design? Why do artists follow or break from established traditions? How do artists determine what resources and criteria are needed to formulate artistic investigations?
4	VA: Cr1.2.6a	6	Formulate an artistic investigation of personally relevant content for creating art.
5	VA: Cr1.2.7a	7	Develop criteria to guide making a work of art or design to meet an identified goal.
6	VA: Cr1.2.8a	8	Collaboratively shape an artistic investigation of an aspect of present-day life using a contemporary practice of art and design.
Anchor Standard 2: Creating (Investigate): Organize and develop artistic ideas and work.
Enduring Understanding: Artists and designers experiment with forms, structures, materials, concepts, media, and art-making approaches.
Essential Questions: How do artists work? How do artists and designers determine whether a particular direction in their work is effective? How do artists and designers learn from trial and error?
7	VA: Cr2.1.6a	6	Demonstrate openness in trying new ideas, materials, methods, and approaches in making works of art and design.
8	VA: Cr2.1.7a	7	Demonstrate persistence in developing skills with various materials, methods, and approaches in creating works of art or design.
9	VA: Cr2.1.8a	8	Demonstrate willingness to experiment, innovate, and take risks to pursue ideas, forms, and meanings that emerge in the process of art-making or designing.
Enduring Understanding: Artists and designers balance experimentation and safety, freedom and responsibility while developing and creating artworks.
Essential Questions: How do artists and designers care for and maintain materials, tools, and equipment? Why is it important for safety and health to understand and follow correct procedures in handling materials, tools, and equipment? What responsibilities come with the freedom to create?
10	VA: Cr2.2.6a	6	Explain environmental implications of conservation, care, and clean-up of art materials, tools, and equipment.
11	VA: Cr2.2.7a	7	Demonstrate awareness of ethical responsibility to oneself and others when posting and sharing images and other materials through the Internet, social media, and other communication formats.
12	VA: Cr2.2.8a	8	Demonstrate awareness of practices, issues, and ethics of appropriation, fair use, copyright, open source, and creative commons as they apply to creating works of art and design.
Enduring Understanding: People create and interact with objects, places, and design that define, shape, enhance, and empower their lives.
Essential Questions: How do objects, places, and design shape lives and communities? How do artists and designers determine goals for designing or redesigning objects, places, or systems? How do artists and designers create works of art or design that effectively communicate?
13	VA: Cr2.3.6a	6	Design or redesign objects, places, or systems that meet the identified needs of diverse users.
14	VA: Cr2.3.7a	7	Apply visual organizational strategies to design and produce a work of art, design, or media that clearly communicates information or ideas.
15	VA: Cr2.3.8a	8	Select, organize, and design images and words to make visually clear and compelling presentations.
Anchor Standard 3: Creating (Reflect/Refine/Continue): Refine and complete artistic work.
Enduring Understanding: Artist and designers develop excellence through practice and constructive critique, reflecting on, revising, and refining work over time.
Essential Questions: What role does persistence play in revising, refining, and developing work? How do artists grow and become accomplished in art forms? How does collaboratively reflecting on a work help us experience it more completely?
16	VA: Cr3.1.6a	6	Reflect on whether personal artwork conveys the intended meaning and revise accordingly.
17	VA: Cr3.1.7a	7	Reflect on and explain important information about personal artwork in an artist statement or another format.
18	VA: Cr3.1.8a	8	Apply relevant criteria to examine, reflect on, and plan revisions for a work of art or design in progress.
Anchor Standard 4: Presenting (Select): Select, analyze, and interpret artistic work for presentation.
Enduring Understanding: Artists and other presenters consider various techniques, methods, venues, and criteria when analyzing, selecting, and curating objects, artifacts, and artworks for preservation and presentation.
Essential Questions: How are artworks cared for and by whom? What criteria, methods, and processes are used to select work for preservation or presentation? Why do people value objects, artifacts, and artworks, and select them for presentation?
19	VA:Pr4.1.6a	6	Analyze similarities and differences associated with preserving and presenting two-dimensional, three-dimensional, and digital artwork.
20	VA:Pr4.1.7a	7	Compare and contrast how technologies have changed the way artwork is preserved, presented, and experienced.
21	VA:Pr4.1.8a	8	Develop and apply criteria for evaluating a collection of artwork for presentation.
Anchor Standard 5: Presenting (Analyze): Develop and refine artistic techniques and work for presentation.
Enduring Understanding: Artists, curators and others consider a variety of factors and methods including evolving technologies when preparing and refining artwork for display and when deciding if and how to preserve and protect it.
Essential Questions: What methods and processes are considered when preparing artwork for presentation or preservation? How does refining artwork affect its meaning to the viewer? What criteria are considered when selecting work for presentation, a portfolio, or a collection?
22	VA:Pr5.1.6a	6	Individually or collaboratively, develop a visual plan for displaying works of art, analyzing exhibit space, the needs of the viewer, and the layout of the exhibit.
23	VA:Pr5.1.7a	7	Based on criteria, analyze and evaluate methods for preparing and presenting art.
24	VA:Pr5.1.8a	8	Collaboratively prepare and present selected theme-based artwork for display, and formulate exhibition narratives for the viewer.
Anchor Standard 6: Presenting (Share): Convey meaning through the presentation of artistic work.
Enduring Understanding: Objects, artifacts, and artworks collected, preserved, or presented either by artists, museums, or other venues communicate meaning and a record of social, cultural, and political experiences resulting in the cultivating of appreciation and understanding.
Essential Questions: What is an art museum? How does the presenting and sharing of objects, artifacts, and artworks influence and shape ideas, beliefs, and experiences? How do objects, artifacts, and artworks collected, preserved, or presented, cultivate appreciation and understanding?
25	VA:Pr6.1.6a	6	Assess, explain, and provide evidence of how museums or other venues reflect history and values of a community.

26	VA:Pr6.1.7a	7	Compare and contrast viewing and experiencing collections and exhibitions in different venues.
27	VA:Pr6.1.8a	8	Analyze why and how an exhibition or collection may influence ideas, beliefs, and experiences.
Anchor Standard 7: Responding (Perceive): Perceive and analyze artistic work.
Enduring Understanding: Individual aesthetic and empathetic awareness developed through engagement with art can lead to understanding and appreciation of self, others, the natural world, and constructed environments.
Essential Questions: How do life experiences influence the way you relate to art? How does learning about art impact how we perceive the world? What can we learn from our responses to art?
28	VA:Re7.1.6a	6	Identify and interpret works of art or design that reveal how people live around the world and what they value.
29	VA:Re7.1.7a	7	Explain how the method of display, the location, and the experience of an artwork influence how it is perceived and valued.
30	VA:Re7.1.8a	8	Explain how a person's aesthetic choices are influenced by culture and environment and impact the visual image that one conveys to others.
Enduring Understanding: Visual imagery influences understanding of and responses to the world.
Essential Questions: What is an image? Where and how do we encounter images in our world? How do images influence our views of the world?
31	VA:Re7.2.6a	6	Analyze ways that visual components and cultural associations suggested by images influence ideas, emotions, and actions.
32	VA:Re7.2.7a	7	Analyze multiple ways that images influence specific audiences.
33	VA:Re7.2.8a	8	Compare and contrast contexts and media in which viewers encounter images that influence ideas, emotions, and actions.
Anchor Standard 8: Responding (Analyze): Interpret intent and meaning in artistic work.
Enduring Understanding: People gain insights into meanings of artworks by engaging in the process of art criticism.
Essential Questions: What is the value of engaging in the process of art criticism? How can the viewer "read" a work of art as text? How does knowing and using visual art vocabularies help us understand and interpret works of art?
34	VA:Re8.1.6a	6	Interpret art by distinguishing between relevant and non-relevant contextual information and analyzing subject matter, characteristics of form and structure, and use of media to identify ideas and mood conveyed.
35	VA:Re8.1.7a	7	Interpret art by analyzing art-making approaches, the characteristics of form and structure, relevant contextual information, subject matter, and use of media to identify ideas and mood conveyed.
36	VA:Re8.1.8a	8	Interpret art by analyzing how the interaction of subject matter, characteristics of form and structure, use of media, art-making approaches, and relevant contextual information contributes to understanding messages or ideas and mood conveyed.
Anchor Standard 9: Responding (Interpret): Apply criteria to evaluate artistic work.
Enduring Understanding: People evaluate art based on various criteria.
Essential Questions: How does one determine criteria to evaluate a work of art? How and why might criteria vary? How is a personal preference different from an evaluation?
37	VA:Re9.1.6a	6	Develop and apply relevant criteria to evaluate a work of art.
38	VA:Re9.1.7a	7	Compare and explain the difference between an evaluation of an artwork based on personal criteria and an evaluation of an artwork based on a set of established criteria.
39	VA:Re9.1.8a	8	Create a convincing and logical argument to support an evaluation of art.
Anchor Standard 10: Connecting (Synthesize): Synthesize and relate knowledge and personal experiences to make art.
Enduring Understanding: Through art-making, people make meaning by investigating and developing awareness of perceptions, knowledge, and experiences.
Essential Questions: How does engaging in creating art enrich people's lives? How does making art attune people to their surroundings? How do people contribute to awareness and understanding of their lives and the lives of their communities through art-making?
40	VA:Cn10.1.6a	6	Generate a collection of ideas reflecting current interests and concerns that could be investigated in art-making.
41	VA:Cn10.1.7a	7	Individually or collaboratively create visual documentation of places and times in which people gather to make and experience art or design in the community.
42	VA:Cn10.1.8a	8	Make art collaboratively to reflect on and reinforce positive aspects of group identity.
Anchor Standard 11: Connecting (Relate): Relate artistic ideas and works with societal, cultural, and historical context to deepen understanding.
Enduring Understanding: People develop ideas and understandings of society, culture, and history through their interactions with and analysis of art.
Essential Questions: How does art help us understand the lives of people of different times, places, and cultures? How is art used to impact the views of a society? How does art preserve aspects of life?
43	VA:Cn11.1.6a	6	Analyze how art reflects changing times, traditions, resources, and cultural uses.
44	VA:Cn11.1.7a	7	Analyze how response to art is influenced by understanding the time and place in which it was created, the available resources, and cultural uses.
45	VA:Cn11.1.8a	8	Distinguish different ways art is used to represent, establish, reinforce, and reflect group identity.

FOCUS AREA 1 DISCIPLINARY LITERACY:
Instructional materials incorporate reading, writing, and communicating within the arts disciplines.
1	Instructional materials provide students with multiple opportunities to engage with authentic sources that represent the language and style that is used and produced by performers/artists/technicians in each of the five arts disciplines: dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts.
2	Instructional materials regularly engage students in speaking/listening, reading/writing, and performing cultural art activities. (Culture: Values and beliefs of a particular group of people, from a specific place or time, expressed through characteristics such as tradition, social structure, religion, art, and food.)
3	Instructional materials provide a coherent sequence of authentic sources that use vocabulary and knowledge over the course of study in each of the five arts disciplines: dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts. Vocabulary is addressed as needed in the materials but not taught in isolation of deeper learning.
4	Instructional materials address the necessity of using the five arts' disciplines (dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts) across the curriculum.
FOCUS AREA 2 LEARNING PROGRESSIONS:
Instructional materials provide purposeful sequencing of teaching and learning expectations across multiple developmental stages.
5	Instructional materials guide students to apply critical thinking skills to convey meaning to the presentation of artistic work.
6	Instructional materials provide students with multiple opportunities to revisit their learning around the National Core Arts Standards (NCAS).
7	Instructional materials provide goals for learning that are integrated as three-dimensional learning.
8	Instructional materials interpret intent and meaning in artistic work to focus students on learning goals.
9	Instructional materials provide criteria for evaluating artistic work.
10	Materials guide students in art to progress through learning of the 7 Elements of Art, specifically line, shape, form, value, color, and texture. Materials help students learn how these build upon each other in a work of art.
FOCUS AREA 3 AUTHENTICITY AND RELEVANCE:
Instructional materials are authentic to the five arts' disciplines and relevant to the students of New Mexico.
11	Instructional materials are authentic to the regulation of the five arts disciplines and are diverse in text type.
12	Instructional materials reference New Mexico artists and their produced artwork.
FOCUS AREA 4 SCAFFOLDING AND SUPPORTS:
Instructional materials include instructional strategies that facilitate students' development as they build on prior knowledge and internalize new information.
13	Teacher materials include information on the arts disciplines; background knowledge in the content area; support in three-dimensional learning; learning progressions; common student misconceptions and suggestions to address them; and guidance targeting speaking/reading/writing in an arts curriculum.
14	Instructional materials guide students to share their knowledge and experiences in relation to the topic at the beginning of an instructional unit.
15	Instructional materials guide students to build an understanding of standard operating procedures that include safety guidelines, procedures, and equipment.

FOCUS AREA 1 COHERENCE:
Instructional materials are coherent and consistent with the New Mexico Content Standards that all students should study in order to be college- and career-ready.
1	Instructional materials address the full content contained in the standards for all students by grade level.
2	Instructional materials support students to show mastery of each standard.
3	Instructional materials require students to engage at a level of maturity appropriate to the grade level under review.
4	Instructional materials are coherent, making meaningful connections for students by linking the standards within a lesson and unit.
FOCUS AREA 2 WELL-DESIGNED LESSONS:
Instructional materials take into account effective lesson structure and pacing.
5	The Teacher Edition presents learning progressions to provide an overview of the scope and sequence of skills and concepts. The design of the assignments show a purposeful sequencing of teaching and learning expectations.
6	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable, standards-aligned content objectives.
7	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable language objectives tied directly to the content objectives.
8	Instructional materials provide focused resources to support students' acquisition of both general academic vocabulary and content-specific vocabulary.
9	The visual design of the instructional materials (whether in print or digital) maintains a consistent layout that supports student engagement with the subject.
10	Instructional materials incorporate features that aid students and teachers in making meaning of the text.
11	Instructional materials provide students with ongoing review and practice for the purpose of retaining previously acquired knowledge.
FOCUS AREA 3 RESOURCES FOR PLANNING:
Instructional materials provide teacher resources to support planning, learning, and understanding of the New Mexico Content Standards.
12	Instructional materials provide a list of lessons in the Teacher Edition (in print or clearly distinguished/accessible as a teacher's edition in digital materials), cross-referencing the standards addressed and providing an estimated instructional time for each lesson, chapter, and unit. (Publisher citation only required.)
13	Instructional materials support teachers with instructional strategies to help guide students' academic development.
14	Instructional materials include a Teacher Edition with useful annotations and suggestions on how to present the content in the student edition and in the supporting material.
15	Instructional materials integrate opportunities for digital learning, including interactive digital components.
FOCUS AREA 4 ASSESSMENT:
Instructional materials offer teachers a variety of assessment resources and tools to collect ongoing data about student progress related to the standards.
16	Instructional materials provide a variety of assessments that measure student progress in all strands of the standards for the content under review. (Adopted New Mexico Content Standards for 2022: New Mexico Social Studies Standards and New Mexico Core Arts Standards)
17	Instructional materials provide multiple formative and summative assessments, clearly defining which standards are being assessed through content and language objectives.
18	Instructional materials provide scoring guides for assessments that are aligned with the standards they address, and that offer teachers guidance in interpreting student performance and suggestions for further instruction, differentiation, remediation and/or acceleration.
19	Instructional materials provide appropriate assessment alternatives for English Learners, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, advanced students, and special needs students.
20	Instructional materials include opportunities to assess student understanding and knowledge of the standards using technology.
FOCUS AREA 5 EXTENSIVE SUPPORT:
Instructional materials give all students extensive opportunities and support to explore key concepts.
21	Instructional materials can be customized or adapted to meet the needs of different student populations.
22	Instructional materials provide differentiated strategies and/or activities to meet the needs of students working below proficiency and those of advanced learners.
23	Instructional materials provide appropriate linguistic support for English Learners and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, and accommodations and modifications for other special populations that will support their regular and active participation in learning content.
24	Instructional materials provide strategies and resources for teachers to inform and engage parents, family members, and caregivers of all learners about the program and provide suggestions for how they can help support student progress and achievement. (Publisher citation only required.)
25	Instructional materials include opportunities for all students that encourage and support creative thinking and effective problem-solving skills.
FOCUS AREA 6 CULTURAL AND LINGUISTIC PERSPECTIVES:
Instructional materials represent a variety of cultural and linguistic perspectives.
26	Instructional materials inform culturally and linguistically responsive pedagogy by affirming students' backgrounds in the materials themselves and in the student discussions.

27	Instructional materials provide a collection of images, stories, and information, representing a broad range of demographic groups, and do not make generalizations or reinforce stereotypes.
28	Instructional materials provide context, illustrations, and activities for students to make interdisciplinary connections and/or connections to real-life experiences and diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
FOCUS AREA 7 INCLUSION OF CULTURALLY AND LINGUISTICALLY RESPONSIVE LENS: Instructional materials highlight diversity in culture and language through multiple perspectives.
29	Instructional materials include tools and resources to relate the content area appropriately to diversity in culture and language.
30	Instructional materials include tools and resources that demonstrate multiple perspectives in a specific concept.
31	Instructional materials engage students in critical reflection about their own lives and societies, including cultures past and present in New Mexico.
32	Instructional materials address multiple ethnic descriptions, interpretations, or perspectives of events and experiences.
