

DTC Virtual Office Hours

The Assessment Bureau will hold virtual office hours Friday, March 18, 8-9 a.m. Click here to access this session.

DLM Assessment Preparation

The recommended deadline to complete student's First Contract Surveys (FCS) and Personal Needs Profiles (PNP) was Monday, March 7. This work can still be done through the beginning of the testing window. DTCs should remove all students not in testable grades. DLM Exit Codes can now be found on the State Assessments site. The window to administer the Required End of Year Assessment is March 21 through May 6.

Online Assessment Literacy for Educators

The Assessment Bureau thanks districts for their support of the self-paced, online Assessment Literacy for Educators course in Canvas. Over 500 New Mexico educators have already begun working through the resources in Micro-course 1. Enrollment is open and available through the Canvas Catalog. Micro-course 2 will launch Tuesday, March 14.

2021-22 Winter DTC Training Series

The final two sessions of the Winter DTC Training Series will be held Friday, March 11. The first session covering Cognia Testing Administration will be held 8-9:30 a.m. The second session will cover online testing and eMetric training and will be held 10 a.m.-noon. Registration is only necessary for those who have not already attended a previous session. Certificates of training completion will come directly from Cognia in the coming weeks.

ACCESS Administration Window Extended

Please note that the statewide ACCESS testing window has been extended through May 27. As a reminder, local testing windows can be shorter than the state window. The extension allows districts and charters to view reports online on August 1.

Additional Cognia Materials Ordering

The additional window to order summative testing materials from Cognia will open Monday, March 14. All testing materials to administer the NM-ASR and Spanish Reading SBA must be ordered locally as districts and charters do incur the costs of those assessments. Only NM-MSSA paper-based testing materials for students whose IEP designates the need for such need to be ordered directly from Cognia. Orders placed during the initial ordering window should arrive Monday, March 21. The window to administer all Cognia summative assessments is March 28 through May 6.
