

New Mexico SAT School Day Commonly Used Accommodations and Supports by Testing Mode¹

Accommodations & Supports (state allowed accommodation must be submitted in advance)	College Board		College Board SAT Computer-based Testing	College Board SAT paper-based Testing	Will the score be College Reportable? ³	Notes
	Evidence Based Reading & Writing	SAT Math
EL-Math Only: Allows an EL student to take only the math sections of the SAT in English.	N/A	Yes	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	No	Refer to the PED guidance document posted on the PED SAT site: https://webnew.ped.state.nm.us/bureaus/assessment/state-assessments/#assessment-sat
EL-Translation for Content: Student may have the math test content translated into their native language	N/A	Yes	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	No	Translated materials are not provided. LEAs may use local translators and provide translation as needed.
ASL for Content: Student may have the test content signed to them using ASL.	Yes	Yes	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	No	Cases are reviewed on an individual basis to determine if there are other accommodations that might be considered support college reportable scores.
ASL for Responses: Student may respond by signing response to scribe using ASL.	Yes	Yes	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	Accommodation requested in advance. ²	No	Cases are reviewed on an individual basis to determine if there are other accommodations that might be considered support college reportable scores. Typically recommend student points or uses cards to indicate answer choice for college reportable scores.

¹ These accommodations are permitted by PED/College Board that result in non-college reportable scores but count for participation for purposes of state and federal accountability.

² Accommodation requested in advance.

³ College Board will send score to high education institutions if a student indicates for it to be shared.