

District Test Coordinators Office Hours Q & A
May 20, 2021

General Assessment Questions
1.	Is there more information regarding the field test for Alt-ACCESS that we are required to participate in this fall?	For more information about the Alt-ACCESS field test, please visit the Alternate ACCESS for ELLs Field Test: Coming to Schools in Early 2023 website.
2.	When will testing calendars be available for next year?	A draft of the 2022-23 assessment schedule was sent out on May 20 with the Embargo Memo . DTCs are encouraged to use this draft to begin planning for the 2022-23 school year. A finalized version of the assessment schedule will be available soon.
3.	Will there be a fall SAT school day?	No, there are no plans for a PED-sponsored fall SAT school day. Districts/schools are welcome to provide this opportunity for their students but would have to purchase it directly through the College Board.
4.	If students miss the SAT as juniors, can they take it next fall as part of the SAT school day?	No, there are no plans for a PED-sponsored fall SAT school day. Districts/schools are welcome to provide this opportunity for their students but would have to purchase it directly through the College Board.
5.	Can we have SAT directions for students sent to us? We have had students attempt without success.	To view scores, students must log in or create a College Board account if they don't have one. Please note: Some scores will be released later for reasons that may include participation in the accommodated testing window or makeup testing, late receipt of answer sheets, missing information on the answer sheet, or other exceptional conditions that require additional attention.
6.	If we could get a report from College Board that provides total students tested in the	Thank you for the feedback. We will share this with the College Board.

	window with the student roster, it would be great! Totaling each day of the window and the accommodation report together is not ideal.
Recommendations for Next Year
1.	No end-of-year interim assessment next year.	Thank you for the recommendations. These issues will certainly be discussed and considered.
2.	Please do not extend the ACCESS test window through the end of the second semester.
3.	When developing an agreement with College Board, can the state include makeup seniors?
