PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:

- Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) and Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). The cited Teacher Edition, Student Edition, and/or Student Workbook should correspond with titles and ISBNs entered on the Form F cover page, whether in print, online, or both. The review set submitted to the summer review institute should also correspond with what is cited on the Form F. If the review set is an online platform only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams. If the review set is in print only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams.
- For this section, the provider/publisher will enter two citations per standard (Columns D and H). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. The citations should be concise and should allow the reviewer to easily determine that all components of the standard have been met. Each citation should cover no more than 3 pages within the materials.
 - Column D: Enter one citation in Column D from the Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
 - Column H: Enter one citation in Column H from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the standard. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
- The material will be scored for alignment with each standard as “Meets expectations,” “Partially meets expectations,” or “Does not meet expectations” based on the citations provided.
 - NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.

Reviewer directions for Social Studies Standards Review:

Columns D-G: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Student Edition or Student Workbook (student-facing core material, print and/or digital) for the standard. Review the cited material and score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the standard:
 ◦ M = Meets the standard
 ◦ P = Partially meets the standard
 ◦ D = Does not meet the standard
 Evidence for each publisher citation is required if you score the materials with a D. For your evidence for each standard that scores a D, choose one of the options from the dropdown menu in Column G. If the reason for scoring the materials with a D is not one of the dropdown options, enter your own evidence statement in the cell in Column G.
 ◦ Any cells grayed out do not require a citation or evidence. The score cells in those rows will automatically populate if formulated to do so.
 ◦ Each score cell (column E) will turn green as you score the materials.

Columns H-K: The provider/publisher will provide a citation from the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material, print and/or digital) for the standard. Review the cited material, score the material by determining the degree to which it meets the standard, and provide evidence to support your determination:
 ◦ M = Meets the standard
 ◦ P = Partially meets the standard
 ◦ D = Does not meet the standard
 ◦ Any cells grayed out do not require a citation or evidence. The score cells in those rows will automatically populate if formulated to do so.
 ◦ Each score cell (column I) and evidence cell (column K) will turn green as you score the materials.

CCSS STANDARDS FOR LITERACY IN HISTORY/SOCIAL STUDIES

Reading Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12

Key Ideas and Details

151	CCSS.RH. 11-12.1	Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, connecting insights gained from specific details to an understanding of the text as a whole.
152	CCSS.RH. 11-12.2	Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas.
153	CCSS.RH. 11-12.3	Evaluate various explanations for actions or events and determine which explanation best accords with textual evidence, acknowledging where the text leaves matters uncertain.

Craft and Structure

154	CCSS.RH. 11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
155	CCSS.RH. 11-12.5	Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.

156	CCSS.RH.11-12.6	Evaluate authors' differing points of view on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
157	CCSS.RH.11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
158	CCSS.RH.11-12.8	Evaluate an author's premises, claims, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other information.
159	CCSS.RH.11-12.9	Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.
Range of Reading & Level of Text Complexity
160	CCSS.RH.11-12.10	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 11-CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
Writing Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies Grades 11-12
Text Types and Purposes
161	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1	Write arguments focused on discipline-specific content.
162	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences the claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
163	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant data and evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both claim(s) and counterclaims in a discipline-appropriate form that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
164	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1C	Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
165	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1D	Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
166	CCSS.WHST.11-12.1E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from or supports the argument presented.
167	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2	Write informative/explanatory texts, including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/experiments, or technical processes.

168	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2A	Introduce a topic and organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
169	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2B	Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.
170	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2C	Use varied transitions and sentence structures to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.
171	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2D	Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic; convey a knowledgeable stance in a style that responds to the discipline and context as well as to the expertise of likely readers.
172	CCSS.WHST.11-12.2E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation provided (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).

Production and Distribution of Writing

173	CCSS.WHST.11-12.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
174	CCSS.WHST.11-12.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
175	CCSS.WHST.11-12.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

176	CCSS.WHST.11-12.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
177	CCSS.WHST.11-12.8	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the specific task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation
178	CCSS.WHST.11-12.9	Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

Range of Writing

179	CCSS.WHST. 11-12.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for reflection and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Section 2: Social Studies Content Review

PROVIDER/PUBLISHER INSTRUCTIONS:

- Provider/Publisher citations for this section will refer to the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) and/or Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). The cited Teacher Edition, Student Edition, and/or Student Workbook should correspond with titles and ISBNs entered on the Form F cover page, whether in print, online, or both. The review set submitted to the summer review institute should also correspond with what is cited on the Form F. If the review set is an online platform only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams. If the review set is in print only, then that is what should be cited on the Form F and submitted for review by the review teams.
- For this section, the provider/publisher will enter two citations per criterion (Columns C and G). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the criterion. The citations should be concise and should allow the reviewer to easily determine that all components of the criterion have been met. Each citation should cover no more than 3 pages within the materials.
 - Columns C and G: Enter one citation in Column C and one citation in Column G from either the Teacher Edition (teacher-facing core material) OR Student Edition/Student Workbook (student-facing core material). Each citation should direct the reviewer to a specific location in the materials that best meets the criterion. Any cells grayed out do not require a citation.
- The material will be scored for alignment with each criterion as “Meets expectations,” “Partially meets expectations,” or “Does not meet expectations” based on the citations provided.
 - NOTE: You may not use a citation more than once across ALL sections of the rubric.

FOCUS AREA 1 COHERENCE:
Instructional materials are coherent and consistent with the New Mexico Content Standards that all students should study in order to be college- and career-ready.

1	Instructional materials address the full content contained in the standards for all students by grade level.
2	Instructional materials support students to show mastery of each standard.
3	Instructional materials require students to engage at a level of maturity appropriate to the grade level under review.
4	Instructional materials are coherent, making meaningful connections for students by linking the standards within a lesson and unit.

FOCUS AREA 2 WELL-DESIGNED LESSONS:
Instructional materials take into account effective lesson structure and pacing.

5	The Teacher Edition presents learning progressions to provide an overview of the scope and sequence of skills and concepts. The design of the assignments show a purposeful sequencing of teaching and learning expectations.
6	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable, standards-aligned content objectives.
7	Within each lesson of the instructional materials, there are clear, measurable language objectives tied directly to the content objectives.
8	Instructional materials provide focused resources to support students' acquisition of both general academic vocabulary and content-specific vocabulary.
9	The visual design of the instructional materials (whether in print or digital) maintains a consistent layout that supports student engagement with the subject.

10	Instructional materials incorporate features that aid students and teachers in making meaning of the text.
11	Instructional materials provide students with ongoing review and practice for the purpose of retaining previously acquired knowledge.
FOCUS AREA 3 RESOURCES FOR PLANNING:
Instructional materials provide teacher resources to support planning, learning, and understanding of the New Mexico Content Standards.
12	Instructional materials provide a list of lessons in the Teacher Edition (in print or clearly distinguished/accessible as a teacher's edition in digital materials), cross-referencing the standards addressed and providing an estimated instructional time for each lesson, chapter, and unit.
13	Instructional materials support teachers with instructional strategies to help guide students' academic development.
14	Instructional materials include a Teacher Edition with useful annotations and suggestions on how to present the content in the student edition and in the supporting material.
15	Instructional materials integrate opportunities for digital learning, including interactive digital components.
FOCUS AREA 4 ASSESSMENT:
Instructional materials offer teachers a variety of assessment resources and tools to collect ongoing data about student progress related to the standards.
16	Instructional materials provide a variety of assessments that measure student progress in all strands of the standards for the content under review. (Adopted New Mexico Content Standards for 2022: New Mexico Social Studies Standards and New Mexico Core Arts Standards)
17	Instructional materials provide multiple formative and summative assessments, clearly defining which standards are being assessed through content and language objectives.
18	Instructional materials provide scoring guides for assessments that are aligned with the standards they address, and that offer teachers guidance in interpreting student performance and suggestions for further instruction, differentiation, remediation and/or acceleration.
19	Instructional materials provide appropriate assessment alternatives for English Learners, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, advanced students, and special needs students.
20	Instructional materials include opportunities to assess student understanding and knowledge of the standards using technology.
FOCUS AREA 5 EXTENSIVE SUPPORT:
Instructional materials give all students extensive opportunities and support to explore key concepts.
21	Instructional materials can be customized or adapted to meet the needs of different student populations.
22	Instructional materials provide differentiated strategies and/or activities to meet the needs of students working below proficiency and those of advanced learners.

23	Instructional materials provide appropriate linguistic support for English Learners and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse students, and accommodations and modifications for other special populations that will support their regular and active participation in learning content.
24	Instructional materials provide strategies and resources for teachers to inform and engage parents, family members, and caregivers of all learners about the program and provide suggestions for how they can help support student progress and achievement.
25	Instructional materials include opportunities for all students that encourage and support creative thinking and effective problem-solving skills.
FOCUS AREA 6 CULTURAL AND LINGUISTIC PERSPECTIVES: Instructional materials represent a variety of cultural and linguistic perspectives.
26	Instructional materials inform culturally and linguistically responsive pedagogy by affirming students' backgrounds in the materials themselves and in the student discussions.
27	Instructional materials provide a collection of images, stories, and information, representing a broad range of demographic groups, and do not make generalizations or reinforce stereotypes.
28	Instructional materials provide context, illustrations, and activities for students to make interdisciplinary connections and/or connections to real-life experiences and diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
FOCUS AREA 7 INCLUSION OF CULTURALLY AND LINGUISTICALLY RESPONSIVE LENS: Instructional materials highlight diversity in culture and language through multiple perspectives.
29	Instructional materials include tools and resources to relate the content area appropriately to diversity in culture and language.
30	Instructional materials include tools and resources that demonstrate multiple perspectives in a specific concept.
31	Instructional materials engage students in critical reflection about their own lives and societies, including cultures past and present in New Mexico.
32	Instructional materials address multiple ethnic descriptions, interpretations, or perspectives of events and experiences.
