Robyn,

Thank you for the pleasure of serving on the J Paul Taylor Academy Governance Council. I've enjoyed the three years I have served. It has been particularly meaningful to be a part of a school that served my family in such a positive way as my children went through grades K-8.

Due to unplanned circumstances at work, I cannot in good faith continue my service at the level of commitment I feel is important. Perhaps in another few years, it would be time for me to reconsider applying for a second term. For now, however, I need to direct my efforts and attention elsewhere.

Please accept my resignation from the board, effective June 30, 2022.

Kind regards,
