

"CS 101" Community Mtg Definition

Definition: the "CS 101" Community Meeting is an active, yearly community building activity to introduce and involve stakeholders in the plans of the community school

1

A meeting to introduce the school staff, students, families, partners and community to the schools CS strategic plan and celebrate the community school

2

This meeting should happen at the beginning of the school year every year the school is a community school

3

The meeting should include an explanation of the strategy, how to get involved and a survey

"CS 101" Community Mtg Application

Application: the community meeting can be creative, fun and a celebration of the school

Community Building

Booths

One idea is having a booth for each 6 key practice and a card for families and community to stamp for each booth

Round table discussion

Another idea is an active round table discussion to garner ideas and do the survey

Celebration & Involvement

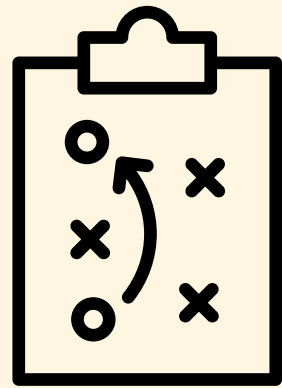

The meeting can include incentives for family attendance and fun activities

"CS 101" Community Mtg Template

Template: these template questions can be used for the end of year report to upload as evidence of your CS 101 Community Mtg

Did the meeting include the community school strategic plan?
Did the meeting include what a community school is?

Was the meeting attended by at least 2 people from each group: family, students, community and staff?

Did the meeting include a meaningful survey and was the data used?

Was the meeting interactive and a celebration of the community school?