RE: Indian Education Advisory Council – Jicarilla Apache Nation Tribal Representative

Dear Honorable President Velarde:

This letter serves to inform you of the vacant position on the Indian Education Advisory Council (IEAC). The Jicarilla Apache Nation Representative has not been nominated and the IEAC and I are seeking a representative to be appointed to this position.

Pursuant to the Indian Education Act, section 22-23A-6 NMSA 1978, the IEAC serves to advise the Secretaries of the Public Education and Early Childhood Education and Care and the Assistant Secretaries of Indian Education and the Native American Early Childhood Education and Care on implementation of the provisions of the Indian Education Act in accordance with Subsection B of 22-23A-6 NMSA 1978. Members shall be appointed by the Secretary with input from New Mexico tribes and organizations involved in the education of tribal students for staggered terms. The appointments of the at-large members and the tribal representatives shall be for terms of four years that end on December 31.

The IEAC consists of sixteen members:

- Four (4) representatives from the Navajo Nation;
- Two (2) representatives from Apaches
 - One (1) from the Mescalero Apache Tribe and one (1) from the Jicarilla Apache Nation;
