Dear Mr. Esquivel and Ms. Sandoval:

I just left a meeting with the PEC's Executive Committee, and I wanted to confirm with you that we are adding this item to the PEC agenda as discussion and possible action under the intervention ladder.

Thank you,

Corina

I'm pretty tired of your constant threats to bring this school in front of the PEC like it is a child. Your approach is constantly combative, and you clearly have an axe to grind. The site is one day old and AIMS is continuing to work on it.

I am looking forward to having a chat with the PEC about how you treat this school.

Dear All:

Wow! I just perused the new AIMS website and it is bright and beautiful! Congratulations on transitioning it over.

I am noticing a few items that still need to be addressed, however, so I do not consider this issue resolved.

- There is no information on the Governing Board membership, the names of the GC members and contact information is no where on your website
- The "Documents" section has a link to "CG Agendas and Minutes" that is empty; I see no place where you have provided notification on GC meetings, the agenda, or minutes.
- In the "Academics" section there is a link to old (2018 report card) data, this should be updated to the recently released VISTAS data.

- The link to the 2023-24 application perpetuates the concern we have raised at AIMS for the past two years: the lottery application is still confusing and is not separated from the registration form.

The letter from Martin Esquivel dated June 7th, in response to the May 1 letter I sent you (attached) assured us that the Lottery and Enrollment packet would be separated and GC info would be included. It is not.

On Friday, July 14, 2023, we are finalizing the July 21st PEC agenda. If the website is not corrected by then I will have no choice but to bring this item before the Public Education Commission. We have worked for months to provide you opportunity to resolve the concerns. They are not resolved.

Thank you,
Corina

Received and thank you. We will continue to follow up with you to verify completion of items.
Thanks,
Corina
