Ma'dam President and our distinguished CEO,

The time has come for me to resign my position as an MCHS GC member. I believe I joined this board in 2015. This resignation becomes effective tomorrow.

It has been a great honor to serve this board, this wonderful school, the students and staff, as well as the community in this capacity over these years. MCHS has provided well for my children academically and my household is eternally grateful.

I wish only the best for MCHS in the future. I can see the current board is strong and abundantly able to carry the school towards its future goals. My regards to the board and the school in its entirety. Be well.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Sutliff
